Comments / Quote for campaign use

"I don't eat foie gras as a matter of moral principle. The production of foie gras involves the cruel force-feeding of ducks and geese - and is one of the worst examples of the excesses of factory farming of animals for human consumption. I believe the sale and/or production of foie gras as a culinary delicacy in South Africa should be banned on the grounds of animal cruelty. I challenge all chefs and food critics to take the no foie gras pledge " - Graham Howe, food and wine editor, gourmet columnist for many publications.

I further pledge not to eat Foie Gras myself
